

Table of Contents

	Pág.
INTRODUCTION.....	11
ABBREVIATIONS	17
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	19

PART I
CLEMENS METTERNICH:
THE ENLIGHTENMENT TRIUMPHANT

CHAPTER I.—METTERNICH AND THE ENLIGHTENMENT: The Education of a European Federalist	25
Science and Law in Metternich’s Thought.....	26
The Rise to Power, 1792-1809	30
CHAPTER II.—METTERNICH AND THE INTERNATIONAL SYSTEM (1): Federalism, Equilibrium, and the “Conference System”	33
Metternich, Kant, and the Idea of Political Equilibrium	34
Metternich and Balance of Power Historiography	40
Metternich’s Critique of Balance of Power Theory	42
Metternich’s Theory of the European Confederation	46
Implementing the Confederation: The Origins of the “Conference System”	52
A Review of Metternich’s Theory of European Order.....	55
CHAPTER III.—METTERNICH AND THE INTERNATIONAL SYSTEM (2): The Workings of the Conference System and the Collapse of the European Confederation, 1815-1822	59

	Pág.
An Overview of the Conference System, 1815-1822.....	60
The German Confederation, 1814-1815	61
The Russian Dilemma and the “Holy Alliance”, 1815-1820.....	66
The Collapse of the Anglo-Austrian Entente, 1820-1825	70
The Conference System and the Problem of Intervention, 1815-1820.	74
An Assessment of Metternich’s Attempt to Form a European Union, 1815-1825	78
CHAPTER IV.—METTERNICH AND THE STATE (1): The Algebra of “Stability”	81
Metternich’s “Conservatism” and the Quest for Stability.....	82
Metternich and the Nature of Social Change.....	85
Metternich’s Assessment of Constitutional Theory	88
Democracy and Absolutism in Metternich’s Thought	91
Metternich’s Theory of Revolution.....	93
The Student Revolts of 1819 and the Carlsbad Decrees.....	98
A Review of Metternich’s Social Philosophy.....	107
CHAPTER V.—METTERNICH AND THE STATE (2): A Political Agenda for the Habsburg Monarchy
The Struggle for Influence Within the Government	109
Searching for Administrative Reform: The Proposals of 1811 and 1814	112
Metternich and the Ideas of Nationalism and Centralization	118
The Italian Territories as a “Test Case” for Federalism, 1814-1815.....	120
Metternich’s Federal Constitution Proposal of 1817.....	127
Metternich’s Reform Efforts and their Significance	134
CHAPTER VI.—METTERNICH AND THE ENLIGHTENMENT: A PERS- PECTIVE	139

PART II

THOMAS JEFFERSON: THE ENLIGHTENMENT OUTWITTED

CHAPTER I.—JEFFERSON AND THE ENLIGHTENMENT: Political Philosophy and Political Methodology	147
Education and Political Apprenticeship in Williamsburg.....	184

	Pág.
Political Philosophy and Political Practice	151
Character and Political Methodology	156
Jefferson and the Republican Party, 1790-1800.....	160
CHAPTER II.—JEFFERSON AND THE STATE (1): Constitutional Theory and the Structure of Government	165
Human Nature and Politics	166
The Structure of Constitutional Government	168
The Idea of a “Living Constitution”	173
Strict and Loose Construction in Theory and Practice: The Bank Issue of 1791 and the Louisiana Purchase of 1803	175
The Politics of Sectionalism	186
The Kentucky Resolutions, the Missouri Crisis, and the Sectional Divide, 1798-1820	188
The Jeffersonian State Reviewed	196
CHAPTER III.—JEFFERSON AND THE STATE (2): Liberalism, Conservatism, and Revolution	199
Jefferson’s Theory of Revolution	200
Spokesman for Revolution in America	205
A Moderate Constitutionalist in Paris	210
An Assessment of Jefferson’s Response to Revolutions	214
The “Natural Aristocracy” and American Society.....	217
Women and Politics in Jefferson’s Thought	220
Jefferson and Slavery.....	221
Jefferson’s Political Economy	226
Conclusion.....	230
CHAPTER IV.—JEFFERSON AND THE INTERNATIONAL SYSTEM (1): The Balance of Power in Theory	235
Commerce and the Atlantic Balance of Power.....	237
Britain and France in Jefferson’s Diplomatic Design.....	243
Jefferson, Hamilton, and the Strategy of Neutrality	245
Jefferson’s Schema of a Two-Tiered State System	249
Ethics and International Law	253
A Review of Jefferson’s Theory of International Relations.....	256

	Pág.
CHAPTER V.—JEFFERSON AND THE INTERNATIONAL SYSTEM (2): The Balance of Power in Practice	259
The Workings of the Balance of Power (1): Securing the Mississippi Trade: Louisiana and the Floridas, 1801-1806	260
1. The Louisiana Purchase and the Balance of Power	262
2. The Floridas and the Balance of Power	267
The Workings of the Balance of Power (2): The Embargo and the Struggle Against Britain, 1807-1809	275
The Workings of the Balance of Power (3): The Mediterranean Problem, 1785-1805	286
Jefferson and the Atlantic Balance of Power: An Assessment	301
CHAPTER VI.—JEFFERSON AND THE ENLIGHTENMENT: A PERS- PECTIVE	305
PART III
METTERNICH, JEFFERSON, AND THE ENLIGHTENMENT: INTERPRETATIONS & CONCLUSIONS
CONCLUSION	315
Metternich, Jefferson, and the Enlightenment thought: The Historiographic Record and the Problem of Interpretation	317
The Impact of the Enlightenment on Metternich and Jefferson: An Assessment	322
APPENDIX I.— Note on the Classical-Liberal Debate on the Sources of Jefferson's Thought and the Origins of the Republican Party	331
APPENDIX II.— A Note on the Political Origins of the University of Virginia	335
SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY	345